MEETING WITH "STING" OPERATIVES

Tuesday, July 13, 1976
11:00 a.m. (15 minutes)
The Cabinet Room (Briefing by Chief Cullinane)
West Lobby Exit (Brief Statement -- Walk Group to Cars -- Photo Opportunity)

FROM: Jim Cannon

I. PURPOSE

To greet and congratulate men and women who participated in District of Columbia's two fake fencing projects.

II. BACKGROUND, PARTICIPANTS, PRESS PLAN

- The District of Columbia's two fake Α. Background: fencing projects -- P.F.F., Inc. (Police-FBI Fencing, Incognito), which operated from October 1975 to February 28, 1976, and G.Y.A. (Got Ya Again), which operated from January until July 1976--resulted in well over 300 arrests and recovery of $3.6 million of property. Both involved cooperation of District of Columbia police officers; agents of the FBI, Secret Service and the Bureau of Alcohol, Tobacco and Firearms; and postal inspectors. Undercover police officers spread the net; FBI agents coordinated taped incidents, evidence and data; agents of the Bureau of Alcohol, Tobacco and Firearms bought fenced guns and traced them to rightful owners; Secret Service agents handled stolen government checks; and postal investoquators probed the stolen fenced mail.
- B. Participants: Listed at Tab A.
- C. Press Plan: To be announced. White House photo opportunity. (At conclusion of meeting, you will, walk officers to front drive, where you will deliver brief remarks.)

III. TALKING POINTS (For Use in Cabinet Room)

1. I would like to welcome all of you to the White House.

- 2. As I am sure each of you knows, your recent criminal investigations, referred to by the media as Operations "Sting," have captured the imagination of the people of the District of Columbia and infused in them a new feeling of respect for law and order. I share that respect and admiration for your fine work.
- 3. All too frequently, in our zeal to protect individual rights and freedoms, we have unduly criticized those who are the principal guardians of those rights and freedoms--police officers. Moreover, it sometimes seems as though only the criticisms receive mention by the media. I want the people of this country to know that you, and others like you, are working on their behalf. I want them to focus on your good deeds--indeed, your brilliant deeds--which far outweigh your mistakes. You are to be commended for your efforts.
- 4. Chief Cullinane, I would like to know more about the planning, implementation and impact of those operations.
