MEMORANDUM FOR: JIM CAVANAUGH file
FROM: BOBBIE GREENE KILBERG
SUBJECT: Sunshine Act Signing
Ceremony and Common Cause

Per my earlier memo, I would suggest that the following individuals from Common Cause be invited to the signing ceremony. Depending on your available space, I would recommend invitations in the following order of priority:

John Gardner, Chairman of the Board
David Cohen, President
Fred Wertheimer, Vice President for Operations
Ann McBride and Michael Cole, Legislative Lobbyists

MEMORANDUM FOR: BILL NICHOLSON
FROM: MAX FRIEDERSDORF M. F.
SUBJECT: Sunshine Bill

Senator Bill Roth (R-DEL), a co-sponsor of the Government in Sunshine bill has requested a signing ceremony.

We were not particularly desirous of the legislation, but in the event the President decides to approve the bill, I recommend we invite Senator Roth for the signing.

Recalling the senior staff meeting on Thursday morning and the discussion of the Sunshine Bill, what is the current status of this legislation?

It is my recollection at the staff meeting the consensus was there should be no position taken by the Administration on the Conference Report. Is this still the best course of action, or is there some other recommendation as to how to proceed?

Many thanks.
