Meeting with Gianfranco Corsini
Thursday, October 9, 1975
10:00 a.m.

GIANFRANCO CORSINI

Writes for the Paese Sera, the most popular and influential newspaper in Rome.

Corsini is specifically interested in how America is doing on its 200th anniversary--what has happened to the "American dream".

Corsini is a Communist and the paper has Communist leanings but he is also the best prepared and most knowledgeable journalist on the United States in Italy and is basically sympathetic toward the United States.
