MEETING WITH BIPARTISAN GROUP OF MAYORS

Thursday, January 29, 1976
State Dining Room
2:00 p.m. (15 minutes)

From: Jim Cannon

I. PURPOSE

This meeting is being held in response to requests by Mayors in town for the Mid-Winter Meeting of the U.S. Conference of Mayors.

II. BACKGROUND, PARTICIPANTS AND PRESS PLAN

A. Background

This is the first meeting of the U.S. Conference of Mayors since their annual meeting in July, 1975, in Boston. That Conference concluded with major victories for the Administration on General Revenue Sharing and Defense Spending Resolutions. You will recall that you invited the Mayors to come to the White House immediately after the Boston meeting where you addressed them in the East Room.

Given the reaction of the U.S. Conference of Mayors to your Budget (see Tab A), it should be expected that a number of Democrats will attempt to spearhead resolutions that will be critical of your Economic Report and Budget for the next fiscal year. Paul O'Neill and Steve McConahey will be caucusing with Republican Mayors tonight in an attempt to brief them and solidify a logical area of support for your programs.

B. Participants

A bipartisan group of approximately 100 Mayors (see Tab B).

C. Press Plan

Full coverage of the President's participation and press will depart after your departure.

III. TALKING POINTS

To be submitted under separate cover in the form of a short speech through the Editorial Office.

Sequence of Events, See Tab C.

BRIEF NOTES FOR MODERATING MAYORS MEETING IN STATE DINING ROOM

INDICATE THE WILLINGNESS ON THE PART OF THE PRESIDENT
TO SOLIDIFY AND IMPLEMENT THE NEW PROGRAMS

1. We have been working with state and local leaders to develop some of the ideas and suggestions that were proposed for the State of the Union and the Economic Message.

2. Currently we are working with various groups to implement some of these good ideas. The New Coalition is sending proposals to the Hill for possible implementation.

Jim Lynn has been playing a very important role in these areas. I see he has brought over some charts here so I think we will let him lead off.

INTRODUCE Jim Lynn

Frank Zarb, Administrator, Federal Energy Administration.

Jim Lynn, Director, Office of Management & Budget

Carla Hills, Secretary HUD (Housing & Urban Development)
