On Friday at ³1:00 p.m. the attached list of newspaper editors and publishers will be our guests in the Roosevelt Room. The purpose of our meeting will be to provide these individuals with a better perspective of the President and some of his major policies, programs and goals. It is anticipated that the meeting will last approximately 30-45 minutes. The specific purpose of this memo is to invite your participation in this meeting. I feel that your presence would add a great deal to the purpose and substance of the meeting.

My secretary will call your office on Thursday to ascertain your availability for this meeting. For your information, the President plans to have a brief Oval Office visit with this same group immediately prior to the Roosevelt Room meeting.
