RE: NATIONAL PRESS CLUB BREAKFAST

MR. CANNON
October 12, 1976

I spoke to Mr. Hinden

They do not have a specific panel of journalists who attend the Natio-al Press Club Breakfasts --

Generally they have about 12 members of Nat. Press Club and correspondents and sometimes T.V. people.

They expect about 25 people to attend your breakfast on Thursday but do not have specif list.

Mr. Hinden will meet you when you get off the elevator on Thursday morning .

Mr. Cannon:

Stan Hinden (Washington Post), in his capacity as chairman of the "Newspaper Maker Breakfast Committee" at the National Press Club, invites you to be their guest in the near future. They hold the breakfast at 8:30, and it lasts for one hour. You would meet with reporters and answer their questions.

Gentlemen:

Mr. James Cannon will be speaking at the "Newspaper Maker Breakfast" at the National Press Club on Thursday, October 14 at 8:30 AM. Mr. Hinden asked that we send you a copy of Mr. Cannon's biography and a picture. The biography is enclosed. Unfortunately, we do not have a photograph of Mr. Cannon to send you.

Thank you.

Sincerely,

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

FEBRUARY 13, 1975

Office of the White House Press Secretary
(New York, New York)

THE WHITE HOUSE

The President today announced the appointment of James M. Cannon, of New York, New York, to be Assistant to the President for Domestic Affairs and will designate him as Executive Director of the Domestic Council. He succeeds Kenneth R. Cole who resigned effective February 28, 1975.

Since February, 1969, Mr. Cannon has been an Assistant to Governor Rockefeller. During the period from 1969 to December, 1973, and prior to the resignation of Governor Rockefeller as Governor of New York, he was assigned as liaison for New York State with Congress and the White House. When Governor Rockefeller later became the Chairman of the Commission on Critical Choices for Americans, Mr. Cannon was appointed Assistant to the Chairman.

In 1956, Mr. Cannon joined Newsweek magazine as Assistant National Affairs Editor, later serving as National Affairs Editor. He was subsequently named Chief of Correspondents for the magazine's twenty-two domestic and foreign bureaus, and served as a Vice President and Assistant to the late Philip L. Graham. From 1954 to 1956 he became a contributing editor of Time magazine after having served with the Baltimore Sun from 1949 to 1954. From 1945 to 1949 he was with the Potsdam Herald-Record and the Gloversville Leader-Herald.

Mr. Cannon was born on February 26, 1918, in Sylacauga, Alabama, and received his B.A. degree from the University of Alabama. He served in the United States Army during World War II.

Mr. Cannon is married to the former Cherie Dawson of Annapolis, Maryland and they have two children. They reside in ~~New York City~~ Washington, D. C.
