MEMORANDUM FOR THE PRESIDENT

FROM: William E. Timmons WET

SUBJECT: Sen. Hugh Scott (R-Pa)

The leader called today to share some thoughts with me. I promised to pass them on.

FRANK RIZZO Senator Scott hopes the new Administration will not give the Philadelphia Mayor leads on federal projects as in the past. The Republican leader expects to have any "breaks".

Protect Scott

CUBA. Senator Scott believes the President can make significant strides in new directions which could help negate any lack of progress on the inflation front. Cuba is an example. Scott would like to see the President at least say that the Cuba question is not closed forever.

2 agree / 2 have talked with H.K.

AMNESTY. As part of the coming-together theme, Scott feels the President should find some formula for amnesty for deserters and draft dodgers. He knows this is a touchy political issue but would like to see movement in this direction, perhaps through alternative service.

we should discuss this.
