Customarily a senior military officer places a wreath on behalf of the President on the grave of each former President to commemorate the anniversary of his birth. President Eisenhower's birthday is October 14.

The following persons have placed wreath in the past:

- 1969 - General Robert Schultz
- 1970 - Counsellor Donald Rumsfeld
- 1971 - Counsellor Robert Finch
- 1972 - General Jack R. Saddler (Senator Dole cancelled)
- 1973 - General Richard L. Lawson

The President may wish to give some sort of special recognition this year. Should this be the case, please notify my office and arrangements will be made in accordance with the President's wishes.

Jwb.

George says this means Jack Marsh is to lay the wreath. I'm a little vague about what he said -- should we just do a memo to Lawson and he'll notify Marsh or should we do a memo to Lawson and a memo to Marsh?

Yes
