MEMORANDUM FOR THE PRESIDENT

FROM: William E. Timmons BT

SUBJECT: Congressional Mail WEM

For your information, I am attaching the log of Congressional mail received on September 10.

This mail will be routinely handled by my office.

House

Robert Hanrahan	Asks that the President intervene in behalf of Simas Kudirka, who has been in prison in the Soviet Union for the past four years and is ill; his mother was recently certified to have been an American citizen at the time of his birth.
Edward Madigan	Asks that a Presidential greeting be sent to Mr. and Mrs. Fred Dehner.
William Armstrong	Thank! Already made arrangements Captain Marshall Bowen, who is stationed at Fitzsimons Army Medical Center, is a certified Rocky Mountain ski instructor and has offered to assist the President and his family during their skiing vacations in Colorado.
Lester Wolff	Conveys the request of Michael H. Kowalski for a meeting with the President to discuss problems facing the Vietnam veterans. (He is Counselor of Veterans' Affairs at C. W. Post College.)
Floyd Spence	Asks that consideration be given to Robert Newman's request that he be appointed as a member of the Atomic Energy Commission.
Victor V. Veysey	Feels that any plans to assist the home construction industry with Federal funding should include the mobile home portion of that industry; points out that retired citizens often find mobile homes a means of extending their limited and fixed incomes.
Donald Riegle	Sends copy of his press statement expressing regret over the President's decision to grant a full pardon to former President Nixon at this time; emphasizes his continuing personal regard for the President and trusts that their disagreement on issues will not affect their friendship or their ability to work together.
David Henderson	Recommends that Raymond M. Taylor be appointed as Librarian of Congress.

Fortney H. Stark	Commends the President on his recent statements on the return of Vietnam era draft evaders and deserters; he is an advocate of amnesty, with a period of required alternative service.
Kika de la Garza	Would like to invite the President to meet with the President of Mexico in one of four counties in his District that are contiguous to Mexico and afford excellent accommodations and highly adequate airports.
O. C. Fisher	Congratulates the President on issuing the pardon to former President Nixon; feels that it was timely and proper.
John J. Rhodes	Sends a photograph inscribed to the President by Spike Bronston and encloses another photograph of the two of them which Mr. Bronston would like the President to autograph.
Richard Vander Veen	Sends letters from his constituents complaining about Secretary Butz and the Postmaster General.
Kika de la Garza	Reiterates his appreciation for the President's leadership in following the recommendation of Senator Mansfield for the Economic Summit Conference; again urges that attention be directed toward utilization of existing programs for manpower assistance.
Thomas Rees	Asks for Presidential pens used in signing three bills he co-authored.
William Hudnut	Is delighted that the President is going to appear at a fund-raiser in Indianapolis on October 16; believes it might mean the difference between defeat and victory for himself and Dick Lugar.
John Buchanan	Recommends that Lawrence J. Brailsford be invited to attend the economic summit.

Senate

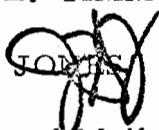

Claiborne Pell	Asks that a fresh look be given to the Administration's decision to pull the Naval ships out of Rhode Island; in the event that there is a withdrawal of the formerly Newport-based destroyers from Greece, he hopes they, too, will be reassigned to Newport.
Harry F. Byrd, Jr.	Recommends that Albert B. Brooke, Jr., be re-appointed to the Federal Power Commission.
Sam J. Ervin, Jr.	Recommends that Mrs. Milred Hodgkin be appointed to the Nat'l Credit Union Administration Advisory Board.
Lloyd Bentsen	Recommends that Bernard Rapoport be appointed to the Advisory Committee to the Pension Benefit Guaranty Corporation.
Edward Gurney	Endorses invitation to the President from Cleveland Payne Nolte to be the guest speaker for the annual banquet of the Alachua County Chapter of the Nat'l Safety Council in Gainesville on October 18.
Robert Taft	Recommends that Odell Vaughn be appointed as Deputy Administrator of the Veterans Administration.
