MEMORANDUM FOR THE PRESIDENT

FROM:

JOHN O. MARSH, JR. jm

Last Tuesday at the dinner meeting with the Joint Senate Leadership, Senator Bob Griffin mentioned to me his desire to accompany you on your forthcoming trip to Japan.

Apparently he and his wife were slated to go on a trip to Japan just recently in connection with his Senate duties but at the last minute these plans had to be cancelled.

Although he made it clear he was not pressing to be included in your official party, nevertheless, he did indicate he would like to be considered should it be feasible.

You will recall that I mentioned this to you briefly and you asked for a memo.
