Dear Trude:

Thank you for the advance copy of McCall's Magazine you sent to the President. He is grateful to see your article on Mrs. Ford. Unfortunately, he is extremely busy these days and will not be able to chat with you on your next article about Susan. I suggest you see Mrs. Ford's staff in the East Wing, who should be able to help you with this.

Thanks again for your continued interest.

Sincerely,

Ron Nessen

Dear Mr. <sup>H</sup>artmann

I'm rushing this rough copy of next month's issue so that the ~~Preside~~ President can ~~have~~ see it BEFORE IT GOES ON THE STANDS in a day or two. It is based on the interviews I had with ~~him~~ him and Mrs. Ford before he entered the White House. I hope you like it. I think you read the MAY issue, didn't you?

Trude

P.S. Please let him see it BEFORE THE WIRES --who get copies in advance--use portions of same....as then he'll wonder where the quotes came from.. I know you understand.

I'm going to cover Rabin in New York AFTER Mrs. Ford's lunch on Saturday and will be there for the United Nations deal through Wednesday. So I hope you don't miss me. I'll be at the New York Hilton from Sat.nite through Wednesday, should you care.

Ju. 6--7000

Please let him read attached letter
