President's mail - September 26, 1974

House

Joseph Karth Sends a shirt to the President from Munsingwear, Inc., similar to the ones the company donated to every member playing in the Congressional Golf Tournament.

John Flynt Recommends that Fletcher Thompson be appointed to the Board of Directors of the Legal Services Corporation.

Matthew J. Rinaldo Says "I appreciate your acceding to my request to include my white paper on the economy into the record of your Economic Summit Conference." Enclosed his paper.

Bill Chappell Requests an appointment to discuss with the President a program now functioning in DeLand, Fla., called the "Why I Love America" Program; would like the President to issue a proclamation in DeLand designating a "Why I Love America Week."

Joseph Karth Read with interest the front page story in the Star-News reporting that tax cuts to help low-income workers cope with inflation are being considered seriously by the Administration. He introduced just such an amendment to the pending tax reform bill now before the Committee on Ways and Means; would be happy to meet with any of the President's advisors to discuss this plan.

John Dingell Urges the President to sign House Joint Resolution 910, to establish National Hunting and Fishing Day as September 28.

Edw Eshleman Sends in suggestion from an editor in his District that the President hold a press conference in Harrisburg with representatives of the press from newspapers, radio and television in cities in Pennsylvania, Maryland, and Delaware, and that the Washington press corps be excluded.

AA to
Cong Bob Price Thanks President for the invitation to the White House for Capitol Hill "staffers." He was most impressed with the warmth and relaxed atmosphere which the President departed.

House - page 2

Claude Pepper

Feels that we must find some way to help Pan American to survive the fuel crisis; encloses proposals from Pan American representatives regarding ways that the gov't can be of assistance to them.

Benjamin Gilman

Supports the request from Sister M. Carmel Therese that the President send a letter of endorsement for their testimonial dinner on Oct 19. Also encloses a picture of the President taken during his visit to Harriman College.

Bill Gunter

Requests the President to immediately direct military transportation be made available from MacDill Air Force Base to transport donated emergency medical, food and clothing supplies to Honduras.

Senate

Robert Taft

Congratulates the President on the creation and implementation of a program for the return of Vietnam Era draft evaders and military deserters; however, there are some aspects of the program with which "I must take some issue and suggest reexamination." He outlines his views and closes by saying : "You have my assurance that notwithstanding our points of disagreement, I shall continue to support your program in every way possible."

Sam Nunn

Conveys the interest of L. Olin Price in serving on the Nat'l Advisory Commission on Juvenile Justice and Delinquency.

Warren Magnuson

Says that his Committee on Commerce and the White House personnel office have worked well together over the past year in an effort to find well qualified men and women to serve in key posts in regulatory commissions; pledges his support for continuing this cooperative relationship in an effort to select people with whom the Administration and our country can take pride.

 Lowell Weicker
Jerry Litton

Request an opportunity to meet with the President to discuss legislation they have introduced regarding limiting accessibility to tax returns.

Mike Mansfield
Hugh Scott

In the event the legislation establishing the Nat'l Commission on Supplies and Shortages becomes law, they would like to suggest that Roger Ahlbrandt and Arnold A. Saltzman be named as two of the five Members of the Commission representing the private sector.

Jesse Helms

Endorses invitation to the President to address the National Association of Independent Insurance Adjusters at their annual convention in Colorado Springs in May, 1975.
