Dear Betty:

It was indeed a pleasure to meet with you and the other leaders of major women's organizations, and most encouraging to have the benefit of your views on priority issues of concern to all of you. I want to express once again how much I appreciate your participation and how greatly I value the wise counsel of each and everyone who attended.

Your thoughtful gift of the engraved silver tray will be a pleasant reminder of your friendship and support, for which I am deeply grateful.

With warmest best wishes,

Sincerely,

GERALD R. FORD
