11:00 a. m. (90 min) Congressional Hour. Bill Timmons is really under pressure to get Congressmen in to see the President. Most of them want to score points prior to the election. We have 35 requests for meetings. By approving this 90 minute session we can dispose of about 25 requests with this and the two sessions that have already been approved for Thursday and Friday. This will also give the President a chance to play the fight against inflation.
