Dear Jerry and Betty:

Fern joins me in sending to both of you our sincerest thanks for your warm reception and kind, thoughtful entertaining of your old friends for brunch, tours and pictures. You can be sure we will treasure this "once in a life-time experience" for the rest of our lives.

Jerry, I take this opportunity to reiterate my request for your services for a commencement address on May 18, 1975 at Clarion State College. President James Gemmell will supply your office with additional information on time, aviation landing facilities, transportation from the air-strip and back, and any other pertinent information. We are all waiting breathlessly for word from you honoring us with your presence on this occasion.

Sincerely and respectfully
yours,

Allan R. Elliott
