Honorable Gerald R. Ford
President of the United States
The White House
Washington, D.C. 20500

Dear President Ford:

I have just received word from Bill Robbins, President, Rotary International, that he has in his office your Paul Harris Fellow Medallion, which he is planning to present to you in person soon after the first of January. He will be writing (or telephoning) for an appointment.

In the event he is unable to arrange an appointment, he will forward the materials evidencing the award to our Rotary Club. We then will see that you get it post haste. Maybe it will give Chris Sonneveldt, president of our Club, and I an excuse to go to Washington.

I am sorry for the long delay, but R.I. President Bill Robbins has been wanting to meet you personally ever since you became President.

Always sincerely,

Paul S. Bond
