MEMORANDUM FOR THE PRESIDENT

FROM: Max Friedersdorf M. F.
SUBJECT: Rep. Bud Shuster (R-Pa)

Shuster called late Friday night after adjournment sine die with a request to speak to you today concerning the milk price support bill.

The measure passed Congress the final day, increasing parity price supports on milk from 80 to 85 per cent.

Shuster wants the bill signed, and wants to personally urge you to do so.

I told him of your busy schedule today; advised him I would let you know of his position, but did not know if you could get back to him. (Shuster is president of the GOP freshman class.)

Before the vote on the milk bill we advised the GOP leadership that Secretary Butz would probably recommend veto; but did not commit you either way. The bill passed on suspension, 205 - 58.
