House

Harold Johnson                      Forwards his proposal for a Public Works Development Program for the Bureau of Reclamation and the Corps of Engineers. Hopes that, in reviewing the FY 1976 budget proposals, very careful consideration will be given to this recommendation which he believes is needed for community benefit and the unemployment situation.

Ray Thornton                        Recommendation of Ed Foreman for appointment as Secretary of Transportation.

John Myers                          Forwards a photograph of the President for autographing.

Ken Hechler                         Supports invitation from the West Virginia Agriculture Commissioner to the President to address the National Association of State Departments of Agriculture on October 5.

Thomas Morgan                      Asks for an autographed photograph for Tommy Sandzimore.

Charles Whalen                     Recommends that Patrick Healy be appointed as Secretary of the Housing and Urban Development Department.

Dante Fascell                      Recommends that Roy Green be appointed to the Electronic Funds Transfer Commission.

Roy Taylor                          Urges that every effort be made to expedite release of the Forestry Incentives money in the agriculture appropriations.

Robert Mollohan                    Concerned about the President's plans to ask the Congress for authority to transfer the $125 million appropriated for Title III to Title I of the Emergency Job and Unemployment Assistance Act.

Albert Quie                         Thanks President for sending a copy of his remarks made August 9, as a Christmas memento.

John Melcher	Recommends that Dolores Colburg be appointed to the Advisory Council on Women's Educational Programs.
Wm Moorhead	Co-signs letter with Professor Richard Cooper of Yale offering proposals for alleviating our recession-inflation problems. Hopes the President will carefully consider proposals prior to the State of the Union message.
Romano Mazzoli	Concerned about possible military involvement in Vietnam by the U. S. Hopes that the Congress will be fully informed and properly consulted on this matter.
Charles Bennett	Writes in behalf of Thomas Browne, a Canadian citizen who wishes to remain in this country and asks that the President intervene with the Immigration officials.
John Dent	Requests that a Presidential message be sent to Mrs. Catherine Polinelli.

President's mail - Jan. 13, 1975

Senate

Howard Cannon	Strongly urges that the President reconsider his plans to rescind $1.3 million of funds for the Immigration and Naturalization Service. Cites large number of illegal aliens now in this country holding jobs while U. S. citizens are out of jobs.
Wm Roth	Forwards letter from constituent who believes that we should feed American citizens before trying to aid other countries.
Robert Taft	Endorses James R. Jose for an appropriate position with the Administration.
Robert Taft	Recommends Monroe G. Marks for position of Assistant Administrator or Administrator of Office of Interstate Land Sales Registration with HUD.
John Sparkman	Says that contrary to the President's public statements, fertilizer producers are not being considered among the highest priority customers for natural gas supplies by the FPC. Concerned about the closing of the Farmers Chemical Association's nitrogen fertilizer plant in Tunis, N. C. because of natural gas curtailments; asks that the President back up his Oct 8 pledge to assure American farmers all the fuel and fertilizer they need for full farm production.
Bill Brock	Asks that an autographed photograph be sent to Ernest Rees.
Robert Griffin	Supports invitation to the President to be the keynote speaker at the 1975 National Student Employment Conference.
Philip Hart	Recommends that John L. Hazard be appointed as Secretary of HUD.
Harrison Williams	Recommends that Gary D. Laws be appointed to the National Advisory Committee of the Juvenile Justice Prevention Commission.

*What is

Lloyd Bentsen

Recommends that Charles I. Morris be appointed to the National Labor Relations Board.

Robert Taft

Recommends that Clifford R. Schaible be appointed to an appropriate position.

John Sparkman

Submits two ideas which he thinks would be helpful in our efforts to improve the economy. (1) Develop a crash program to bring our underground oil into production, and (2) Consider Dr. Burns' recommendation re setting up a wage and price review board.

Philip Hart

Support suggestion in his enclosed letter from Wes Tebeau that the President vacation in Michigan, which would provide both an economic and psychological boost to the State.

Lawton Chiles

Very concerned about reports that the President's energy message will include the imposition of a gradually increasing tax on all imported oil; also concerned that such a tariff may be accomplished by Presidential order and without full Congressional participation in this decision; feels that Congress should and must share that responsibility.
