MEMORANDUM FOR: THE PRESIDENT

FROM: JACK MARSH

Our present soundings indicate we have the best chance with the following Senators on the forthcoming tariff suspension vote. Therefore, it is believed a phone call would be most helpful to the following:

1. Harry Byrd. Although he voted against us in the Committee, it is believed there is a chance that he might vote with the Administration on the Floor.
2. John Stennis 2/17/75 - Hasn't made up his mind. Going to study tonight. Believes we need legislation. Maybe tilting out wrong.
3. James Eastland

Advice is that the recent action by the Department of Interior on off-shore drilling has caused problems with Senators from Gulf States.

4. John McClellan. Chance of getting his vote is not good as he is a sponsor of the Jackson/Kennedy Amendment.

As you are aware, Senator Griffin is anxious that you contact some of the Southern Senators by phone.
