ME

NIXON'S ONE GOOD MOVE

To The Press:

Last night I picked up the Press at my daughter's and read your editorial, plus a few other items. This hurts my dignity, but I shall have to commend you on it.

I don't know whether you'll agree with me on this or not. I know of one mistake President Nixon didn't make while he was president. He surely picked a damn good successor.

Senator Kennedy was complaining about President Ford's oil tax on imported oil the other night. Why should we beg those dang Arabs? A year ago they held out on us.

Like I wrote the gas company when they threatened to shut me off cuase I got a little behind — go ahead, I know how to cut firewood.

Believe me, If President Ford sends me one of his WIN buttons, I'll wear it. I want to win too.
