Dear Mr. President:

In the event that this note reaches your desk, I'll try to express a great deal of appreciation in a very few words.

First, Peg and I thoroughly enjoyed our visit with you last Thursday. Seeing an old friend is always a pleasure, but when he happens to be the President of the United States, a whole new dimension has been added. We thank you for your time and your graciousness.

Second, while it may have been somewhat presumptuous, my offer to be of any service I can was very genuine. If there is some way I can help, or some contribution I can make, I would welcome the opportunity.

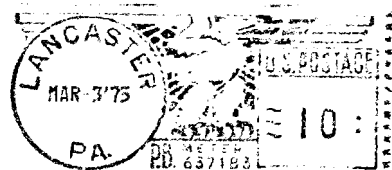

Finally, Peg and I both thank you again for a delightful experience, and we both send our very best wishes to you and Betty.

Sincerely,
