Dear Mr. President:

This is an overdue letter to express our thanks for your confidence in us by nominating me to be Ambassador to Switzerland.

ME

We are very busy being briefed, selling our house, arranging for storage or shipment of our furniture, but all of it is being done with conviction and gratitude that I can still be helpful to our country.

Nancy and I hope to see you and your charming Betty before we go over in early April, but that must necessarily depend on your schedule.

Needless to say, this position involves many changes in our thinking, but I do feel that with my legislative background we can handle the challenge.

Warm personal regards.

Sincerely,

Peter H. Dominick

The Honorable Gerald R. Ford
President of the United States
