Senate

Clifford Hansen	Thanks President for opportunity to use his box at the Kennedy Center to see the play, "The Constant Wife." Especially enjoyed the company of Mr. and Mrs. Pat O'Donnell.
John Glenn	Recommends that Felix Mansager be appointed to an appropriate position in the Administration.
John Stennis	Supports invitation to the President to speak at the Mississippi State University on May 11.
Robert Taft	Appreciated the President's letter and pen used to sign the Emergency Jobs and Unemployment Assistance Act; thanks the President for personal phone call; is happy to say that he is recovering rapidly.
Quentin Burdick	Urges the President to reimpose beef import quotas; says the entire livestock price situation is causing the ruin of our beef cattle operations.
Bill Brock	Asks that the President autograph a photograph for Bill Houston.
Mike Mansfield Hugh Scott	Recommend that Arnold A. Saltzman and Roger Ahlbrandt be appointed to the National Commission on Supplies and Shortages' Advisory Committee.
Mike Mansfield Hugh Scott	State that enabling legislation provides that "The President in consultation with the Majority and Minority Leaders of the Senate and the Majority and Minority Leaders of the House shall appoint five members of the Commission (Nat'l Commission on Supplies and Shortages) from among persons in private life." Senators stand ready to consult and to cooperate in this regard. "The task assigned is one of the most vital that can be undertaken today."

Charles Percy	Recommends that Farwell Smith be appointed to a position in ERDA.
Howard Cannon Paul Laxalt	Are disappointed that a Nevadan was not appointed to fill the vacancy on the Ninth Circuit Court of Appeals; emphasize strongly that in the event of another vacancy occurring in this court system that they would like full consideration given to the selection of a qualified Nevadan.
Robert Taft	Recommends that Jack L. Howard and Dr. Ronald L. St. Pierre be appointed to the National Planning and Advisory Council.
Bob Packwood	Sends the President a copy of his letter to Russell Train expressing serious reservations concerning the EPA-NERC reorganization.
Edward Brooke	Hopes that it will be possible for the President to visit Boston on May 12 or 19 for "An Evening with President Ford." Says that it would be a boon for the Party in Massachusetts.
Barry Goldwater	Thinks that it is a terrible oversight that out of the 31 sport awards carrying Presidential approval, there is none for boxing. Urges the President to see that a patch is approved and made available as soon as possible. Asks that the President have someone call him on this.
Strom Thurmond	Recommends that Mrs. Thurmond Clarke be appointed as an Ambassador.
Robert Griffin	Hopes the President will be able to accept invitation to speak at the national convention of the National Association of Independent Insurance Adjusters on May 21-24.
John Sparkman	Recommends that Mrs. Bobbie L. Walden be appointed to the National Advisory Council on Adult Education.

House

Thad Cochran	Hopes the President will be able to accept invitation to address the Annual Awards Banquet of the Jackson chapter of the National Business League.
James Abdnor Larry Pressler	Are distressed to hear that an increase in meat imports may be receiving consideration at the State Department. Feel that no trade concession can justify the economic consequences the dumping of increased foreign meat on our markets would bring.
Margaret Heckler	Recommends that Mrs. Gerridee Wheeler be appointed to the National Advisory Commission on International Women's Year.
Edward Koch	Recommends that Eugene J. Bockman be appointed to the Advisory Committee to the White House Conference on Library and Information Services in 1977.
Marvin Esch	Asks that the President immediately review the potential cutoff to Michigan of over $90 million in Revenue Sharing funds as a result of the Ferndale School case.
Bob Wilson Charles Bennett	Enclose a copy of the report from hearings of the Seapower Subcommittee which held a series of hearings on the Current Status of Shipyards, 1974. Recommend a five year Congressionally enacted shipbuilding authorization program in order to provide adequate planning in order to stabilize the shipbuilding industry.
Clarence Brown	Feels that the action taken on March 6 by the Department of Agriculture with respect to the Prior Approval Report Program was both wise and necessary; since the program was initiated it has become evident that it has worked to the severe detriment of the farming community; feels that a federally regulated agricultural industry in the U. S. works to the hardship of the farmers and the consumers.

J. Herbert Burke	Recommends that Joseph I. Grealy be appointed to the Advisory Committee on Juvenile Delinquency Prevention.
Carroll Hubbard	Urges the President to declare Centertown, Ohio County, Kentucky, a disaster area because of damages from the tornado on March 7.
Harold Ford	Appreciates being invited to the White House for breakfast and the swearing in of Secretary Coleman; looks forward to working with the President in an effort to solve our common problems.
Matthew Rinaldo	Says the Party in N. J. is showing new signs of strength and confidence; agrees that we Republicans need to touch base with the independent voters and organized labor.
Charlie Gubser	Recommends that consideration be given to John E. Crawford, Jr. who has applied for a position in the White House Summer Intern Program.
James O'Hara	Hopes that the President will be able to accept invitation to address the national convention of the National Association of Independent Insurance Adjusters in Colorado Springs in May.
Charles Whalen	Recommends that David E. Maas be appointed as Deputy Administrator of the LEAA.
Edward Latch (Chaplain)	Thanks President for taking the time to write a foreword in his new Book of Prayers; says he prays for the President every day.
Warren Jernigan	Invites the President to make the presentation of the Doormen's Society's Man and Woman of the Year awards on April 29 in the Cannon House Office Bldg; recipients will be Congressman Mendel Davis and Dorothy Ellsworth, legislative representative, AFL-CIO.
