Dear Mr. President:

These past two weeks were, as you know, the most difficult we have ever faced. Your words of encouragement and comfort during these days were a needed inspiration for each of us.

We expect the very best for Lee as he has started a six week treatment and therapy program and we need your continued prayers to strengthen him and Kathryn.

Marion and I continue to know that God is in command and certainly His goodness and mercy are beyond imagination and His will is always perfect.

For your prayers, your support and your friendship, we give to you our heartfelt thanks.

With very warmest personal regards,

Sincerely,

President Gerald R. Ford
