THE WHITE HOUSE
WASHINGTON

April 30, 1975

Dear Mr. President:

Attached are copies of some of the letters I have received from very good friends which will give you some understanding of the problem that I am facing in the community.

Also, I think that the article I gave you about Arthur Hertzberg which was printed in the Jewish press will give you some idea that the community is quite responsible.

I deeply appreciate the opportunity to meet with you today.

Sincerely,

Max Fisher
