Dear Mr. President:

O'Bie and I were surprised and deeply honored that you would come to the ceremony over in the Treasury last Monday. It was the sort of personal touch and genuine human warmth that people throughout the country more and more feel toward their President. As you said, the person who likes golf, played football, and smokes a pipe can't be all bad.

Thanks so much for honoring us. Our best wishes to you and Betty.

Sincerely yours,

George P. Shultz
