Mr President:

The attached, which I mentioned to you this AM, refers to contingency planning, in the event the Club is not able to come up with their payment by May 30. Peter Wallison of V.P.'s staff tells me everyone is hopeful the Club can do it. However, if they cannot, and cannot raise the funds to buy the Club building the only course open would be to offer the property to the House. So, for the moment, we hold our breath.

Jack Calkins

at 310 First Street, S. E., Washington, D. C.

The purpose of this meeting is to ratify an Option Agreement with the Capitol Hill Club and to consider steps necessary to offer the property to the House Office Building Commission, including the possibility of borrowing funds to forestall any foreclosure on the property prior to action by the House Office Building Commission.
