MALCOLM

Dear ~~Malcolm~~:

Many thanks for sending on to me the June 1st issue of FORBES MAGAZINE along with your nice note.

I thoroughly enjoyed and appreciated the interview with you and Steve. Actually, I probably gained more from it than you did. I was particularly interested in receiving your impressions of the attitudes of the Middle East countries which you visited so recently. Despite your suggestion that I might "slow down a bit," I hope we may have more such informal visits in the future.

Incidentally, I am looking forward to your next balloon adventure!

Again, my thanks to you and Steve and warmest personal regards.

Sincerely,

JERRY FORD

Dear Mr. President:

My son Steve and I hope that you will be as pleased with the treatment of your FORBES interview as I know FORBES' readers will be.

You might also find amusing my very brief editorial on page 11, "Italy's Miraculous Survival".

And perhaps we can both hope that a Congressional majority might find wisdom in the quotation of our Italian entrepreneur!

With warmest good wishes and lasting appreciation,

Sincerely,

Malcolm Forbes

Dear Ron:

If it is possible, I'd be grateful if you could pass the enclosed note and advance copy of FORBES on to The President.

All of us here are deeply grateful to you for having made the interview possible -- and we'll be after you for a couple of autographed copies of the two photographs used!!

Cordially,

Malcolm Forbes
