JACK VALENTI
PRESIDENT

May 20, 1975

My dear Mr. President,

Your presence at the screening of THE WIND AND THE LION honored our theater and our industry and I want to tell you of my own personal gratitude. All of a sudden the viewing of a film took on excitement and that indefinable sense of passion that runs through any group when our President is in our midst.

You looked extremely fit and well, Mr. President. You are bearing your burdens with calm and confidence and from my own intimate knowledge of the House in which you live and the problems you carry, your performance of your duties is ample evidence that our country is in good hands.

Sincerely,

The President
