THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

RECOMMENDED TELEPHONE CALL

TO: Charles "Chuck" Slocum, newly elected
State Chairman of Minnesota

DATE: As soon as possible

RECOMMENDED BY:

PURPOSE: To congratulate him on his victory and thank him for his efforts on behalf of the Party.

BACKGROUND: Within the last two weeks, Slocum defeated the conservative candidate to become State Chairman. About thirty years old, he will be putting full-time efforts into maintaining the Republican Party's strength in Minnesota. He has given up a good job with Dayton-Hudson Corporation (department stores), where he served as a governmental affairs specialist.

TOPICS OF DISCUSSION:

1. Congratulate him on his victory.
2. Appreciate his sacrifice for the Party and are sure that his career will be enhanced by it in the long run.
3. As Slocum will learn as time goes on,
service to the public in government and party affairs becomes more and more rewarding (a personal touch).

MEMORANDUM

D

FROM: DICK CHENEY

Attached is a recommended Presidential phone call to Charles "Chuck" Slocum, newly elected State Chairman of Minnesota.

I think a brief phone call from the President would do wonders to firm up our posture out there and I would recommend that the President call him.

As the memo explains, he beat the Conservative Reaganite candidate for State Chairman. And, certainly, we could do ourselves a lot of good with a brief phone call.
