MR. PRESIDENT -

In line with the second paragraph of Ambassador Moynihan's letter, you might wish to have us schedule a meeting for him with you. Similar to the "one-on-one" sessions you have been having with your new Cabinet members after they have been sworn in. If so, we will arrange for such a meeting in consultation with Secretary Kissinger's office.

TO THE UNITED NATIONS

Dear Mr. President,

You were marvelous to Liz and the children Monday, and I am more than grateful. After meeting you they felt very differently about my going off to yet another government job, after having more or less promised "never again".

Before the swearing-in I talked a bit with Don Rumsfeld, who urged that from time to time I ask to see you to go over UN affairs, and I will do this. The one thing the other members of the UN must be brought to understand is that when your representative speaks, he speaks on your behalf and states your views.

Respectfully,

PAT M
Daniel P. Moynihan
Ambassador

The President
The White House
