Jim:

Cabot Lodge letter is okay with us, but doesn't the President usually close with "Sincerely"?

Dear Mr. President:

Enclosed herewith are several photographs relating to your audience with the Pope on June 3, 1975. They were taken by the Vatican photographer.

To a thoroughly trustworthy American on June 28, the Pope mentioned your audience with him. He said how much he had enjoyed meeting you and how deeply impressed he was by your approach to your role in foreign affairs.

With warm and respectful regard,

Faithfully yours,

Henry Cabot Lodge
