The original documents are located in Box C25, folder "Presidential Handwriting, 8/7/1975" of the Presidential Handwriting File at the Gerald R. Ford Presidential Library.

Copyright Notice

The copyright law of the United States (Title 17, United States Code) governs the making of photocopies or other reproductions of copyrighted material. Gerald Ford donated to the United States of America his copyrights in all of his unpublished writings in National Archives collections. Works prepared by U.S. Government employees as part of their official duties are in the public domain. The copyrights to materials written by other individuals or organizations are presumed to remain with them. If you think any of the information displayed in the PDF is subject to a valid copyright claim, please contact the Gerald R. Ford Presidential Library.

THE PRESIDENT HAS SEEN....

THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

August 7, 1975

CABINET MEETING
2:00 p.m. (90 minutes)
The Cabinet Room

From: James E. Connor

I. BACKGROUND, PARTICIPANTS & PRESS PLAN

1. Background:

You last met with the Cabinet on July 16 when the agenda covered a discussion of the changes in the refugee program, your meeting with the Commissioners of the Independent Regulatory Agencies on regulatory reform, a report from Jack Marsh on problems in the Congressional mail area, Jim Schlesinger's report on activities in Berbera, and a status report from Frank Zarb on the energy program.

2. Participants:

Attached at Tab A.

3. Press Plan:

Press Photo at Beginning of Meeting and David Kennerly Photo.

II. TALKING POINTS

- As you all know, David Mathews was sworn in as the new Secretary of HEW earlier today. We are pleased to welcome him to the Cabinet, and I am sure we all look forward to working with him.
- 2. In addition, I have asked Cap Weinberger to join us at this meeting so that I could have the opportunity to thank him for his services to the Nation and to me and to give him the opportunity to give us the benefit of his thoughts on his years of service with the Government. We will reserve some time at the end of the meeting for that purpose.

3. We returned last Monday night from a lengthy and busy European trip, and I wanted to take this opportunity to brief the Cabinet on it.

I would like to ask Secretary Kissinger if he would like to make any comments. Henry,...

Are there any questions?

- 4. You are all aware of how rapidly events have been occurring in the energy area. I have asked Frank Zarb to give us an up to date report on the situation. Frank,...
- 5. One of the key concerns we will be hearing about over the next month is the economic effect of immediate decontrol of "old" oil, and I have asked Alan Greenspan to give us a report on that situation. Alan,...
- 6. With the new Campaign Reform Act in effect, I think we all need to be sure about what is considered 'permissible' activity for Cabinet Officers and White House staff to undertake in the upcoming campaign. I have asked Phil Buchen to give us a briefing on this issue. Phil,...
- 7. We've heard a lot of talk in the past few months about concern for the unemployed and creating jobs. I've asked John Dunlop to brief us today on what creating a good job really means. John,...
- 8. In the conduct of the business of government, we often tend to think of our responsibilities as federal responsibilities and our programs as federal programs. In recent years, a significant change has occurred, and today many of our federal programs are more truly described as national programs; that is, they are federally funded but administered by state and local governments.

This trend has produced an increase in federal spending over the past 10 years from $12 billion in FY 66 to over $56 billion in FY 76, a significant pattern of growth that makes it absolutely necessary for our administration to have a sound relationship with state and local governments in order to succeed.

As you know, I have assigned primary responsibility for intergovernmental relations at the White House to the Domestic Council and Jim Cannon. I would like Jim to take a few minutes to talk about this important area. Jim,...

10. I read a remarkable speech a short while ago that Cap Weinberger gave at the Commonwealth Club. I know that Cap has given a lot of thought to his government experience and I'd like to take a few moments before we adjourn to ask Cap if he will share some of his thoughts with us.

Cap,...

•

Revised 9:50 a.m. Friday, August 8,1975

THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

Attendees Cabinet Meeting Friday, August 8, 1975

The President

The Secretary of State, Henry A. Kissinger

The Secretary of Defense, James R. Schlesinger

The Attorney General, Edward H. Levi

The Secretary of Agriculture, Earl L. Butz

The Secretary of Commerce, Rogers C. B. Morton

The Secretary of Labor, John T. Dunlop

The Secretary of Health, Education and Welfare, Forrest David Mathews

The Secretary of Housing and Urban Development, Carla A. Hills

The Secretary of Transportation, William T. Coleman

The Acting Secretary of the Interior, Kent Frizzell

The Deputy Secretary of the Treasury, Stephen S. Gardner (for Secretary Simon, who is on vacation)

The Former Secretary of Health, Education and Welfare, Caspar W. Weinberger

The Counsel to the President, Philip Buchen

The Special Representative for Trade Negotiations, Frederick Dent

The Counsellor to the President, Robert Hartmann

The Counsellor to the President, John Marsh

The U. S. Representative to the United Nations, Daniel Patrick Moynihan

The Assistant to the President, Donald Rumsfeld

The Deputy Director of the Office of Management and Budget, Paul O'Neill (for James Lynn, who is on vacation)

White House/Executive Office:

William Baroody, Assistant to the President

James Cannon, Assistant to the President

James Connor, Secretary to the Cabinet

Alan Greenspan, Chairman, Council of Economic Advisers

Ronald Nessen, Press Secretary to the President

General Brent Scowcroft, Deputy Assistant to the President

L. William Seidman, Assistant to the President

Raymond P. Shafer, Counsellor to the Vice President

Agencies:

Russell Train, Administrator, Environmental Protection Agency

Frank Zarb, Administrator, Federal Energy Agency

Note: The following will not attend: The Vice President (he will be in New York);
Mary Louise Smith (she will be in California); Richard Cheney and Max Friedersdorf (they are both out of the city)