THE WHITE HOUSE
WASHINGTON

Dear Pug:

Many thanks for your nice letter of August 22nd. I too, enjoyed seeing you and my visit to Minneapolis was most pleasurable. I'm glad to know that you feel it was a successful one.

I have heard from George Pillsbury and I am still very enthusiastic about having you and him play with me at Burning Tree. However, the dates George suggested, September 13th and 14th and September 20th and 21st, I am scheduled for out-of-town speaking commitments. As I have explained to George, I hope to work it out for another time.

Thank you again for writing and I look forward to seeing you again soon.

Warmest personal regards.

Sincerely,

President Gerald R. Ford
White House
Washington, D. C.

Dear Mr. President:

It was great to see you again personally last Tuesday.

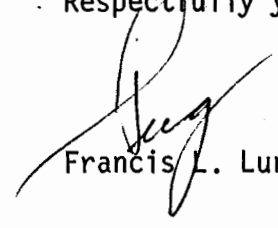

Your trip to Minneapolis was well reported by the press and you left a strong impact on "Gopherville."

You were most gracious in your remarks about me at the luncheon and my thanks to you for so doing.

George Pillsbury and I are eager to test our 15 handicaps against yours at Burning Tree. I understand he has talked to the White House about possible dates.

In the meantime I shall attempt to correct my snap hook.

Respectfully yours,

Francis L. Lund, CLU
