MEMORANDUM FOR THE PRESIDENT

FROM: MAX L. FRIEDERSDORF mf

SUBJECT: Congressional Mail GR-7

For your information, I am attaching the log of Congressional mail received on September 8.

This mail is being handled routinely by my office.

cc: Donald Rumsfeld

House

1. Andrew Hinshaw Was very pleased that the President was not injured in Sacramento. He is "confident that your leadership will continue for a long while at a very high level."
2. Richard Vander Veen "I have taken time this afternoon to thank God that you did not fall victim to the crazy act of an unbalanced person." Feels that we should take steps to remove the guns that give lethal power to people with mixed up minds or criminal intent.
3. Albert Quie Forwards materials which he has received from Gilman Hill, who has a technologically and economically feasible process to extract oil from shale. The Congressman believes the proposal should be explored at the highest levels in our Gov't.
4. Helen Meyner Is anxious to have the proposed Armament Development Center located in New Jersey; understands that the decision is to be made shortly on the location.
5. James Abdnor Says that retailers of propane gas in South Dakota which are supplied ultimately by McCulloch Gas Processing Corporation have received letters from Eastern Petroleum Company stating that ". . . due to the fact that all controls on natural gas liquids will no longer exist after Aug 31, 1975, we no longer have any definite contract commitments to us, and therefore, we are notifying each of the dealers that have filed their Form 17 with us, that it is a great possibility we may not be able to be of assistance to you whatsoever. . . suggest that you protect yourselves anyway you can. . ." Feels that this is the type of action that makes it difficult to accept the idea that the major businesses will deal responsibly with deregulation and urges an immediate investigation of this firm's activities.

16. George Danielson Thanks President for letter and pen with respect to the signing of the Voting Rights Act.
17. Charles Bennett Asks that Presidential birthday greetings be sent to Mrs. J. Rables.
18. Tim Lee Carter Says that he voted for aid to Turkey and was amazed when Ambassador John Sherman Cooper told him that the President was dissatisfied with his vote on the Turkish question. He will continue his support of assistance to Turkey. "Over the years you have been first with me, and will continue to be. I find strong support for you among all of our Republican leaders in Kentucky, with the exception of Louie Nunn. . . "
19. Fred Rooney At the request of the Lutron Electronics Company in Coopersburg, Penna., sends the President Lutron's newest light dimmer, which is supposed to reduce energy costs.
20. Bo Ginn Would be most grateful for any appropriate efforts of the White House in assisting to reach a satisfactory resolution of the problems involved regarding the National Airline's strike. (Letter was dated Aug 28.)
21. Phil Landrum Sends the President a clipping from the Atlanta Journal entitled "Michigan Granny Out-Spits Georgian, and writes a cover letter which is very humorous.

Senate

- 1.S Mike Mansfield Personal letter to the President.
- 2.S Bill Brock Concerned about a situation in which the Department of Labor, acting under the Occupational Safety and Health Act, has issued a proposed industrial noise standard and the EPA, acting under the Noise Control Act of 1974, has proposed a different criteria; says that it is difficult for a business to know what it going to happen when two different federal agencies propose to regulate in different manners in the same area. Also concerned about the effect a substantial change in noise standards will have on our industrial capacity and economic well being, particularly the textile industry.
- 3.S Charles Percy Recommends that Ms. Camille Dabney be reappointed to the National Advisory Council for the Education of Disadvantaged Children.
- 4.S Milton R. Young Recommends that Kim Karabatsos be appointed to the ICC.
- 5.S Ted Stevens Recommends that Richard J. Daschbach be appointed to the Federal Maritime Commission.
- 6.S Bob Dole Hopes the President will be able to accept invitation from the Chancellor of the University of Kansas to attend the K. U. --M. U. football game and participate in "higher education week" activities in Kansas, in conjunction with that appearance. Perhaps the President can fit that visit in with a possible appearance at the Republican Governors Conference in Wichita on Nov 21, 1975.
- 7.S Clifford Case Supports invitation extended to the President and his family by the Paterson, N. J., Bicentennial Commission to be guests of honor on July 3, 1976.
- 8.S Hugh Scott Hopes the President will accept invitation to attend the opening of "Three Centuries of the Arts in Philadelphia" on April 9, 1976.

- 9.S Henry Bellmon Asks that the President give consideration to invitation to visit the Culbertson Elementary School during his swing through Oklahoma in mid-September.
- 10.S Jacob Javits Thanks President for his message to the meeting in New York to establish a Citizens Committee on the city's financial crisis. The meeting was most successful and he and Senator Buckley believe they have an excellent chance to make it really effective.
- 11.S John Glenn Asks that the President declare Ohio eligible for disaster assistance because of the flooding.
- 12.S Robert Taft Asks that the President declare Ohio eligible for disaster assistance because of the flooding.
- 13.S James B. Pearson Says he has been talking to the Governor quite frequently and 'as of this moment we have a solid Kansas Delegation for the Ford-Rockefeller ticket. Kansas would ordinarily be a very fertile ground for a Regan movement, but we see no signs whatsoever of an effort in that regard. "
