THE WHITE HOUSE
WASHINGTON

Sept. 30

I called Mrs. Richard Ford in Grand Rapids (616) 949-1923) and she indicated that she will check with Ted Burba re Kimberly. Told her I would call Wed. a.m .

Oct. 1

Called Mrs. Richard Ford. Ted has no brothers or sisters and she can find no Burba on Diam. St. She will drive there to find out the location, etc. The only Kimberly Burba is a young girl in grade school. Suggested I would call her Thursday a.m.

Oct. 2

Mrs. Gerald Ford called and said Kimberly is the wrong name. Kimberly wanted a birthday card. The person who called was a man and she remembered the name of Kent or Keith. The man called himself and said he was related to Ted Burba and he wanted to work on the PFC in GR

Oct. 3

Called Mrs. Richard Ford. She said there is a Kent Burba and she will check further with Ted to get his background, etc.

Called Mrs. Ford back. She checked with Linda who checked with Ted who also checked with his mother. Kent Burba is considered the "black sheep" of the family and has a jail record. Ted and his mother and the GR Fords would not recommend he get involved in PFC. Kent Burba may be an uncle of Ted Burba.

OVER

Oct. 3

Passed this info. along to Carolyn Porembka who will tell Mrs. Ford. We agreed to tell the PFC to forget request of having Mr. Burba work with the PFC.

Called Babs Beckwith and explained situation to her. She will do nothing and return to me the information and file they have on this matter.

THE WHITE HOUSE
WASHINGTON

Babs Beckwith of The President Ford Committee phoned. She is writing a letter to Kimberly Burba of Grand Rapids (per note the President handed to you) and needs some information. Is Kimberly a Mr. ? Mrs. ? Ms. ? Also, any other information you may have, such as how well the President knows Kimberly, will be helpful to her in preparing a response. Her phone # is: 833-8920.

Trudy,

Dorothy brought this down - the President handed it to her and she thought it should come through you. I guess we probably ought to give it to Cheney to pass on to Callaway.
