Re: President's call to Congressman Teague

- He should reiterate his great interest in the movement of the legislation on synthetic fuels.
- He should express appreciation to the Chairman for the significant progress that has been made.
- He should express hope that the conference can wind up its work quickly and have a bill that will pass.
- He hopes that the Committee can move the companion legislation on price guarantees as quickly as possible.
- When the legislation is in place, every assurance that he will cause ERDA to implement it as quickly as possible.
- And finally, anything the Chairman thinks that would be useful for the President to do to expedite things up, he stands ready to do.

*Called 11/1/75
Conference Monday. Said he would do his best to move it.
Believes he can.*
