Dear Frank:

Many thanks for your nice letter. I too, very much enjoyed seeing Eva and you when you were here last month.

Well--if your friends won't tell you, who will? But seriously, I do appreciate your constructive suggestions and recommendations and promise to keep them in mind.

I'm also very grateful to you and Eva for your kind offer to be helpful in the campaign. Work with both Bo and Leon. I will speak to Bo about Eva's willingness to help, plus your own offer of assistance.

Thank you again for writing and I will look forward to seeing you again soon.

Warmest personal regards.

Sincerely,

Mr. Frank Gard Jameson

I'm also very grateful to you and Eva for your kind offer to be helpful in the campaign. ~~You may not know, but Leon Parma is heading up the operation in California and I would like to suggest that you get in touch with him. I know he'll be more than willing to "put you to work."~~

Thank you again for writing and I will look forward to seeing you again soon.

Warmest personal regards.

Sincerely,

Mr. Frank Gard Jameson
