miss the

Dear Ron:

My personal physician, Dr. William T. Foley, a fine fellow, excellent doctor, and staunch Republican who speaks Chinese (but that's just for future reference) is sending out a Christmas card I think President Ford would like to see and might miss unless you show it to him.

The picture was taken over the Labor Day weekend, Saturday August 30, at a party given by John Slocum on Bellevue Avenue in Newport, Rhode Island. The Foleys' daughter Alix was having a good time at the party and didn't want to leave, so the President comforted her.

It seems to me that anybody in American politics who has people voluntarily sending out Christmas pictures of him with a baby is already well ahead of the game.

With best wishes.

Sincerely,

Julian Goodman
