BLAIK, EARL H.

EXCC
CM 29

December 23, 1975

Dear Colonel Blaik,

President Ford did get to read your good letter of December 17 prior to his departure for Vail and following his signing of the energy bill. As he states in the enclosed copy of his remarks upon signing that bill, "This legislation is by no means perfect" but he concluded that the bill should be enacted into law.

At his direction, Frank Zarb will be advised of the difficulties Bill has had in resolving some questions with the FEA people in Oklahoma City.

The President is pleased to know that you are once again "playing a few holes of golf" and sends his warm personal regards.

Sincerely,

(Miss) Mildred Leonard

The President
