Dear Mr. President:

It is a special pleasure to send you the enclosed copy of the President's 1977 Budget.

Traditionally, the Budget Message of the President outlines the basic theme of the Budget recommendations for the coming year. As with last year, this Budget is intended to reinforce the recovery of our economy without reigniting the fires of inflation.

Because of your deep personal interest, I wanted you to have a copy of this new Budget at the earliest opportunity.

With best wishes,

The Honorable Richard M. Nixon
