OFFICE OF THE VICE PRESIDENT
WASHINGTON, D.C.

To: The President

From: Mildred Leonard

Date: 2/12/76 Time            a.m. p.m.

Willard Simmons of NARD called and asked if he could have an appointment with you for just a few minutes concerning the MAC proposal. He said Sec'y Matthews is not favorable to the proposal and he would like to get out a release in New Hampshire before the primaries to all NARD members indicating that he had your personal assurance that you also oppose it. The druggists are very opposed to the proposal.

He can come to DC anytime you can see him.
