Dear Mr. President,

I tremendously enjoyed the breakfast meeting at the White House last Friday. It was especially good to see you looking so well. I feel sure that you now have developed the momentum which should carry you successfully through the convention. I repeat my assurances to you that I shall be glad to do anything you may suggest to strengthen that effort.

Warm personal regards.

Sincerely,

The President
The White House
Washington, D. C.
