RBC:

Listed below are suggested people for the President to call who were most helpful in Florida:

Joe Taravella
President of Westinghouse Properties
305/566-8666

Mr. Taravella helped arrange the Coral Springs stop and had approximately 16,000 people there. According to Bob Goodwin, we are now receiving a lot of negative feedback because the President didn't stay long enough. Taravella apparently got a lot of kids to attend and now they feel real ly let down because the President's stop was so quick. Also, Taravella put ads in the Coral Springs Paper regarding the President's visit. He'd now like to put another letter in the newspaper saying how very sorry the President is that the stop couldn't have been longer, etc.

Joel Gustafson
PFC Chairman, Broward County
305/563-4126
305/525-2607 (HO)

3/2/76

Mr. Gustafson rode in the President's limo. According to Goodwin, he worked around the clock on the event.

Judge Pete Faye
305/350-5974
305/666-8811 (H)

Judge Faye introduced the President at the Immigration event. He and his wife set up the whole event in Dade County. Although he cannot commit himself because of his position, he is a "Ford Man".

3/2/76

Al Austin
813/879-8410
813/876-9134 (H)

Mr. Austin was very instrumental in pulling together Tampa stop.

3/5/76

Joseph F. Fogarty
305/751-6523
305/758-4247 (H)

Put together fund raiser in Miami. (I don't remember a fund raiser taking place in Miami.)

These are the only names Goodwin could give me. He'll have more later today when the baggage arrives.
