MEMORANDUM FOR THE PRESIDENT

FROM: PHILIP BUCHEN P.

SUBJECT: Honorary Memberships in Masonic Organizations

This is in response to your inquiry concerning the policy for handling invitations for honorary membership in Masonic and Shrine organizations.

In my memorandum to you of October 31, 1974 (at Tab A), a listing was included of all such invitations that had then been received. This listing was marked for approval at your discretion and we were advised that you did not indicate acceptance for any of these organizations. Accordingly, the general policy has been to have the Correspondence Section turn down such invitations. However, when you have been involved with the organization, such as your attendance at a ceremony held by the George Washington Masonic National Memorial Association, or a meeting with the potentate of a shrine, you have accepted the invitation to serve as an honorary member.

There is no legal or appearance problem presented if you wish to accept these invitations, as long as they do not involve fundraising activities. It is my understanding that while Vice President you generally accepted all invitations for honorary membership in such organizations. The only arguments against acceptance are the relatively large number of such invitations that can be expected and uncertainty as to how they will use your name.

DECISION:

Option A. Continue the present policy of accepting invitations for honorary membership only where you have been personally involved with the individual organization, subject to your approval on a case by case basis.

FROM: PHILIP BUCHEN

SUBJECT: Honorary Memberships and Endorsements for the President and his Family

See notes.

The President continuously receives offers of honorary memberships and requests to join this or that organization or endorse a cause. The policy adopted by the previous Administration after the first year of struggling with such decisions was to reject them all, with a few exceptions.

I. General Policy to Decline Memberships and Endorsements.

The principal hazards in accepting such offers are (1) the uneven extension of Presidential favors, creating an appearance of favoritism and proliferating even more such requests, and (2) linking the President's name to solicitation of funds and the like.

The reason for rejection stated in the answering correspondence is that "the President receives so many requests of this kind that the only fair course is to deny them all." The words "of this kind" provide a hedge for whatever exceptions are made.

Many offers of honorary memberships are accompanied by cards or certificates. These are kept, even though the membership is declined "as a token of your thoughtfulness" in making the offer. The rationale for retention is (1) to avoid a seeming slap in the face by return of the entire package, and (2) the human interest value in the accumulation of such tokens.

Fund raising and commercial offers have been rejected on principle as inappropriate for the President, except as noted below.

II. Exceptions

A. Public and Quasi Public Organizations

Presidents have traditionally consented to honorary titles and patronage of official and quasi official organizations. Examples include the American National Red Cross, the United Fund, the United Nations Association, the Boy Scouts of America, and the like. A tradition of membership by past Presidents may sometimes be regarded as conferring a quasi-public character on an organization. For such organizations as the Red Cross and Boy Scouts, which have both national and local organizations, Presidential participation has been limited to the national organization.

B. Other Exceptions

An occasional exception is made because of associations that are personal to the incumbent President, such as his own membership in a golf club, or civic or professional affiliations pre-dating his Presidency and not inconsistent with the office. There may also be some personal or political interest or hometown associations that are distinguishable and can be dealt with on a case by case basis.

It is recommended that the same policies be followed by the members of your family.

The above policies are

III. Recommended Disposition of Offers and Requests

We have accumulated offers received since you took office pending adoption of a general policy, except for a few that required immediate action. On the basis of the policies described above they have been divided into three general groups as follows:

Tab A: Public and quasi-public organizations for which acceptance is recommended.

Tab B: (1) Possible approvals as exceptions depending on guidance from you or a designated adviser.

(2) For consideration on the same basis, all Masonic offers have been segregated under this tab.

Tab C: (1) Proposed rejections under the general policy.

(2) Proposed rejections subject to review in case an exception should be made for political reasons.

My recommendation would be that you authorize acceptance now for all organizations listed at Tab A. I believe the remainder should be reviewed by an adviser from a political standpoint under whatever general policy you direct in response to this memorandum. Any acceptance which may be thus recommended should be forwarded to the Counsel's office. Hereafter, I would propose that membership requests that cannot be handled by a routine letter of rejection be forwarded to the same person for political review, and then to the Counsel's office if acceptance is recommended.
