Bob Sikes called today (Saturday morning) to renew his request for you to participate in the dedication of the Sikes Memorial Library in his Congressional District. This event is scheduled for June 3 which is Bob Sikes' birthday; however, he will adjust the date in order to accommodate you.

As you are aware, Bob is placing great emphasis on your participation, and naturally before getting into the subject of his phone call, he discussed the situation in the recent Florida primary, and how pleased he was to have rendered all the assistance he could on your behalf.
