PURPOSE To greet the participants of the Spokane County Convention

BACKGROUND The situation in Spokane County is very close but the PFC people have the upper hand. This is due in large part to the work of Bob Ogden, PFC Chairman in Spokane County.

Remarks will be heard on a loud speaker system to the assembled group. It is suggested that, after greeting Dr. Cunningham and exchanging brief comments, you speak to the group for two minutes along the lines of the following topics.

TOPICS OF DISCUSSION I am pleased to be able to talk with you today and to extend my best wishes for a successful convention.

I send special greetings to Mayor David Rodgers (Eastern Washington PFC Chairman), Bob Ogden (PFC Spokane County Chairman), County Chairman Homer Cunningham, state and local elected Republicans and the Republican leaders of Spokane County, many of whom I have met on trips into Washington State.

The County Convention process in which you are involved is an important step in our democratic electoral proceedings. Your decisions are especially important and meaningful in this Presidential election year.

There is much at stake -- continued Republican leadership in the White House. Only by a strong and united effort by everyone in our Party can this be accomplished. This goal is within our reach; I hope I can count on your support to achieve it.
