THE WHITE HOUSE
WASHINGTON

May 27, 1976

Dear Jimmy:

I know you share my pleasure over the outcome of the Tennessee Primary. In looking over the returns, I am aware of how different it might have been had your District not come through with the magnificent plurality of over seven thousand votes.

Without your tremendous effort on my behalf this would not have happened, and I wish to express my thanks and appreciation. You were great.

With warmest personal regards,

Sincerely,

Jimmy Ford

*P.S. You were super.
J.*

The Honorable James H. (Jimmy) Quillen
House of Representatives
