MEMORANDUM FOR THE PRESIDENT

FROM: MAX FRIEDERSDORF M.F.
SUBJECT: Recommended Phone Call to Congressman David Treen (R-La.)

The President has previously been requested to phone Congressman Treen, an uncommitted delegate from Louisiana, to enlist his support and that of five other known uncommitted Louisiana delegates.

PFC has provided the attached list of uncommitted delegates for possible use by the President during the Treen phone call.

An additional point to be made with Treen is that the President is going to make a very substantial effort to carry Louisiana. Apparently Treen is apprehensive that the President might write off the South because of Carter.

10 June 1976

TO: Mr. Max Friedersdorf
FROM: Peter McPherson
SUBJECT: President's Call to Congressman Treen

Per our conversation, here are the known Louisiana uncommitted.

In addition to the points we discussed, the President should say that he is going to make a substantial effort to carry Louisiana. Apparently Treen is afraid the President will write off the South because of Carter.
