MEMORANDUM FOR: ROLAND ELLIOTT

FROM: JIM CONNOR JEC

SUBJECT: Incoming Presidential Mail for the Week of June 7-11, 1976

The President reviewed your memorandum of June 11 on the above subject and raised the question as to what follow-up is taken on incoming mail which indicates a friendly attitude toward the President and an offer to support him.

The letter that raised this question in his mind was the letter from Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Wismofske of Toledo, Ohio who had gone to the airport. They were merely spectators; however, they were extremely complimentary and wrote him about the job he was doing as President. He wanted to be sure this type of letter was responded to.

Please prepare a brief statement for the President concerning how such letters are handled. Thank you.

MEMORANDUM FOR:

DICK CHENEY

✓ SIM CONNOR

FROM:

JACK MARSH

On Saturday, the President, while reviewing the Presidential mail folder, raised a question as to what follow-up is taken on incoming mail which indicates a friendly attitude toward the President and an offer to support him.

There was a letter in the Saturday mail from two people from Toledo who had gone to the airport. They were merely spectators; however, they were extremely complimentary and wrote him about the job he was doing as President.

He wanted to be sure this type of letter was responded to.
